

WARRIOR ENTERTAINERS

(Published 1997 by Robyn Ianssen Productions, Sydney)

This slim collection (38 pages, including photos) fills a gap in New Zealand history about one of the soldier-entertainment troupes set up on the Western European Front during World War 1. It describes the formation of this group, the Digger Pierrots, why they used the 'pierrot' motif, and how many group members continued after the war in the N.Z. entertainment industry from the 1920s.

[It was printed in a limited edition of 50 copies ... a small number are available for sale for $US 20 plus postage – from PO Box 745, NOWRA NSW 2541, Australia]
